Parliamentarian’s Report – Things are proceeding smoothly.
President’s Report – Make sure you check lost and found. Starting to gear up again with recorder concerts, Spring Fling ,etc... One School One Book is chugging along. The chapters are more manageable for a nightly read. A suggestion was made that we donate books after we have used them for sister school.
- HCCPTA Representative – none

- VI New Business –
- VII Committee Reports-

BookFair- Book Fair was a success. Brought in under $1500 this book fair. More than half way to budget. Next book fair will be during the icecream social. Lots of ideas for next year to bring in more people. Another suggestion to put bookfair before Valentine’s Day so parents could buy books as gifts. Discussion about adding teacher wish list to the spring book fair. Discussion of encouraging resource teachers to add books to wish lists.

Drama Club- due to a SPARC scheduling conflict, the Drama Club performances have been pushed back to April 4/ April 6. Cast parties will be those evenings immediately following the performances. (Kelly Conway)

Hospitality- will serve refreshments to parents who participate in Career Day

SEATS- One School One Book Program- kids are answering daily questions to enter raffle and win prizes. There will be a magic assembly at then of the week. Sarah Cauble and Kelly Bitsko helped lead the program with Mrs. Goodman. Pat O ‘Bannon is coming to visit 4th and 5th grade; 3-5 will see I Have A Dream Speeches. They are starting to wind down. A few more programs are coming and planning is beginning for next year. Kim Hugo will be the new chair for next year.

Teacher Appreciation- report on the Teachers' Lounge Makeover. We emptied the cabinets and cleaned everything out on Thursday. A new sink, faucet and granite countertops were installed Friday morning. The painters arrive Monday and hope to be finished by Tuesday. They are painting the walls, the cabinets and the bathroom. We relocated the refrigerator and Kathy Gregory is on the hunt for a piece of furniture to hold the 3 microwaves which took up all the counter space. She is also making a new curtain. We have some great before pictures and will be sure to share the after pictures at the end of the week (Mandy Miller)
